

Confused or worried about the Family Court?

DON'T PANIC!

Just go to:

www.familycourtinfo.org.uk

Familycourtinfo.org.uk is a website that has been built for people involved in Family Court cases (or who are worried they might need to go to Family Court) in the Gloucestershire, South Gloucestershire, Bristol, North Somerset & BaNES areas.

It explains a little bit about how the Family Court works and what to expect. It will point you in the direction of lots of useful information and organisations who may be able to help or support you, including information about a free legal advice clinic for some cases about children.
